BARRIE CABENA MUSIC SCHOLARSHIP

Complete Info

The Royal Canadian College of Organists Waterloo-Wellington Center will offer bi-annually - in “even” years

BARRIE CABENA MUSIC SCHOLARSHIP Purpose

1. To honour the contribution made to excellence in church music in Canada by Barrie Cabena, composer, teacher, performer.
2. To assist a deserving student(s) in the formal study of organ, church music, and/or composition at the post-secondary school level.

Administration

1. The Barrie Cabena Music Scholarship Fund was initiated by the Waterloo Wellington Center of the RCCO in 2004 on the occasion of Dr. Cabena’s 71st birthday. Contributions may be made to the “RCCO Cabena Scholarship”. Receipts will be issued by the RCCO National Office.
2. The adjudicating committee consists of two representatives from the RCCO (Waterloo Wellington Center), a representative from the academic community, and Barrie Cabena, or a person designated by his family, as an honorary member, as well as additional co-opted persons as determined, from time to time, by this committee.

Application Procedure

1. The committee attempts to publicize the availability of this scholarship, the conditions of eligibility, and the application procedure.
2. Application forms are available on the web at the RCCO website: wwrcco.ca

Conditions of Eligibility

1. The scholarship will be awarded to Canadian students enrolled in a full time music major or minor program at the undergraduate or graduate level, in or outside Canada. See Note 1.
2. Applicants will have demonstrated involvement and proficiency in musical activities in their church and/or community.

Notes

1. While this scholarship will normally be awarded to a student(s) enrolled in full time studies, the committee may decide to honour persons intending to engage in other forms of intensive music study or practicum.
2. The scholarship monies may be divided, in any given year, between two, or more, deserving candidates.
3. The adjudicating committee may decide not to make an award in any given year.
4. Previous recipients are eligible to apply but preference will normally be given to other applicants.
5. In exceptional cases, the committee may decide to make an award to a deserving candidate who has not applied.
6. The decisions of the adjudicating committee will be final.
